

Ascentium Capital Surpasses $3.0 Billion in Origination Volume

May 16, 2017, KINGWOOD, TX – Ascentium Capital LLC, the top private independent finance company in the United States by new business volume, announced surpassing $3 billion in origination volume since the Company's inception in August 2011.

"This milestone represents the doubling of our funded volume in less than two years. It is gratifying that our forward-looking client solutions underpin the demand for our small business lending solutions. This enables us to capture significant market share," comments Tom Depping, chief executive officer at Ascentium Capital.

The Company continues to focus on building deeper client relationships within specialized industries including healthcare, technology, energy, franchise and hospitality. Richard Baccaro, chief sales and marketing officer at Ascentium states, "We are proud to have provided financing to nearly 38,000 small businesses across the U.S. since 2011. Building successful relationships combined with our ability to deliver a differentiated brand position, drives our accomplishments."

About Ascentium Capital

As a direct lender, Ascentium Capital LLC specializes in providing a broad range of financing, leasing and small business loans. The company's offering benefits equipment manufacturers and distributors as well as direct to businesses nationwide. Ascentium Capital is backed by the strength of leading investment firm Warburg Pincus LLC. For more information, please visit AscentiumCapital.com.

Media Contact

Monica Bruegl
SVP Marketing
Ascentium Capital LLC
MonicaBruegl@AscentiumCapital.com